

ETU Continental Championships Selection Policy

- Tartu, Estonia - 19th - 22nd July
Selection date: 5th June

This is usually the first opportunity for athletes to demonstrate their ability to execute a plan designed to maximise our 'One Day - One Race' philosophy, and it certainly plays an important role in supporting athletes to demonstrate their ongoing medal winning standards. This is a key opportunity for experienced athletes to test and challenge new performance plans and strategies.

This policy details the process and priorities by which British Triathlon will allocate GB quota places to athletes to compete in ETU Continental Championships (ECC).

The ITU determines the eligibility criteria and competition rules for ECC events online entry system. The ITU only accepts athletes entered onto the wait list for each ECC event by National Federations (NF) using the ITU online entry system.

British Triathlon will enter the athletes onto the ITU wait list via the ITU online entry system no fewer than 33 days before the first competition day by the following process;

This document is laid out in three sections:

1. Criteria Overview - this outlines criteria used by the committee
2. Process - how the criteria is applied
3. Appendix - conditions aligned to selection

Criteria Overview

In this policy there will be two types of criteria that will be used to nominate athletes to the ITU

1. Qualification - if you meet the listed criteria you are automatically nominated to the ITU

NOTE: It is the athlete's responsibility to ensure he or she has enough ranking points to gain access to the race for which they have met the standards for Qualification. They should not rely on substitution. Qualification does not mean the athlete has a right to substitution, should it even be possible to make one.

2. Selection - if you meet the nomination criteria or have raced at the listed events the committee will consider a variety of factors and will make a decision whether or not to select an athlete and nominate you to the ITU.

Process

Qualification

Those athletes who have demonstrated very high performance standards at agreed races will automatically be placed onto the ITU wait lists:

1. 2017 World Championships Gold medalist
2. 2018 Yokohama World Series Gold medalists

Please note that for automatic selections there must have been at least four competitors in the category field. Where this is not the case then the performance level will be considered under the selection criteria.

Selection

Athletes who do not meet the Qualification criteria will be considered for nomination to the ITU wait list by the selection committee if they meet at least one of the noted performance measures including but not limited to race results, race performances, progression upon agreed plan in priority order:

1. Evidence of demonstrating an improved profile against the WITTW model through early season performances and approved single discipline measures
2. 2018 World Series performances
3. 2017 World Championship performances
4. 2018 World Cup performances
5. 2018 Arctic One performances
6. 2018 Llanelli Sprint Distance triathlon performances

Note: A performance is an evaluation against your WITTW profile for your class, not your medal result.

Athletes who have met the nomination standards in the above noted races or against the WITTW model for their category will be considered for selection and subsequent nomination to the ITU wait lists by the selection committee. The committee will consider a wide range of performance factors that in their expertise indicate an athlete's ability to race at the performance level required in the European Championships. Selection of any athletes is at the discretion of the committee.

Selection to the WTS start list will be made by the ITU in accordance with the ITU WTS Qualification Criteria.

APPENDIX

Note 1: Nomination for an event is dependent on the following:

1. Event start positions are limited and ranking points earned across the range of Paratriathlon events are crucial to ensuring that the British Team can secure starts. If an athlete is not 100% ready to compete due to injury or illness, they should inform the Head Coach immediately so that a decision may be taken on whether they should be replaced by another British athlete or a whether medical withdrawal is required;

2. An athlete who elects to withdraw from an international event after they have expressed their interest to be considered for nomination, but before the ITU closing date, must inform Kirsty Hillier immediately so that a replacement athlete can be nominated. This communication should be done by the athlete either in person or by email;

3. Athletes must be aware of, and compliant with, ITU rules, including those relating to race uniforms, no-shows and late withdrawals;

4. Withdrawals within 30 days of the ITU closing date may deny other British athletes an opportunity to compete and could result in BTF losing quota spots for future ITU events. If an athlete withdraws after the closing date set by the ITU, when their reason for withdrawal is not medical or circumstances beyond reasonable control, they will be referred to a BTF disciplinary process set up by the BTF. This may result in the athlete being withdrawn from current start lists and/or not entered in future ITU races for a period which the disciplinary process will determine. Medical withdrawals will need to be endorsed by BTF Medical Officer as approved by the Performance Director;

5. BTF is given a limited number of 'athlete reprieves' per year. These may be used when an athlete withdraws from the event after 1300 GMT on the Monday prior to the event. This would normally result in the athlete being removed from all ITU events for the next 30 days. The use of this quota will be at the discretion of the Selection Committee, and British Triathlon is under no obligation to allow an athlete to be reinstated even if the full quota has not been used up;

6. The European Championships is a GB Team Championship event. All team members will be expected to abide by the Elite Teams' Code of Conduct 2018 and wear Great Britain branded kit at the Championships and while travelling to and from Gold Coast. Failure to comply with any of the above requirements may result in the athlete not being nominated for further ITU events.

1. Committee Members (voting)
