Proposer supporting statement (max 200 words):

I wish to contribute to the development of triathlon in London and beyond and the opportunity of working with the regional committee members is an exciting prospect.

I am a BTF tutor, UK Coaching Lead tutor, Principal Lecturer at University of Roehampton and began my coaching career in 1986. I have experience of coaching children from 3yrs to senior adults across several different sports. My philosophy revolves around bringing new people into sport and assisting them to connect and stay with sport/physical activity for life. Coaching is about building life skills through engaging in the process of achieving sporting goals and aspirations. The person comes before the sport is of importance and assisting people in recognising their abilities is rewarding.

I have a range of experiences and personal interest in diversifying our sport, hence my application for the position and my pledge is to utilise the network gained through years of working in sport in assisting Triathlon London in becoming a successful region within the country.
