London Region Series Races are grouped by the type of event: triathlons, aquathlons and duathlons (see above for details). Places in the Series are decided by points from best 2 triathlons, and the best aquathlon and best duathlon (4 scoring races in total). All athletes are awarded points based on a percentage of the 1st London athlete time for their category. The maximum points per race is 1000 which is awarded to the 1st eligible London athlete. e.g. in triathlon if 1st London athlete does 20min they 1000 points, if 2nd London athlete does 22mins they get 909 points ($20/22 \times 1000 = 909$) etc.

Eligibility:

The London Series is open to anyone who is a member of a Triathlon England and has their region assigned to London. Generally to be eligible you should also be a member of a London club or resides in London. (London is defined as the London Boroughs). An individual is not eligible for the London Series if they are also contesting the series of a different Region.
